

Identity Theft Kit

Presentations, Useful Tools, Guides, Resources and much more ...

Identity theft is emerging as the most rapidly growing crime of the 21st century. The threat is increasing significantly, and methods of identity theft are becoming more sophisticated every year.

The Society of Internet Professionals (SIP) has created this Resource Kit, encapsulating a well-attended Identity Theft Panel discussion and many useful resources listed below:

A. Presentations from the following experts:

1. Joseph Iuso, President, Use My Bank
2. Gary O'Brien, Detective Sergeant, Ontario Provincial Police
3. Yufei Yuan, Chair of Business Innovation, DeGroote School of Business, McMaster University
4. Shanna Sederoff, Manager Incident Respond, Barndimensions Inc.

B. Useful Tools & Guides:

1. How to Protect Your Identity Theft (a consumer guide)
2. Businesses Take Note - Steps to Protect Customer Personal Information (Business Guide)
3. Security is Not Enough (online Theft)
4. Identity Theft: Who is Using Your Name?
5. Risk Assessment Guide for Various types of Identity Theft
6. Free subscription to a newsletter dealing with Identity Theft

C. Resources: List of Websites, Addresses and Telephone Numbers

1. Identity Theft & Fraud Reporting Resources
2. Financial institutions, credit agencies, law enforcements, etc.
3. Online Security: Hoaxes, Scams, Scares, Spams, Phishing, etc
4. Access to a SIP's private resource page with hyperlinks to the above resources.

The price of the Kit is $40, plus shipping.
